

AT SASSAFRAS

POLICY STATEMENT

PRIVACY

At Cream at Sassafras® we will always respect people's privacy and been exceptionally vigilant in maintaining confidentiality. Current 'trends' or movement to further focus on Privacy reflect society's development and moves to ensure those who do not understand are informed and to reassure those who may be exploited that there is guidance and ultimately, protection at Law.

Cream at Sassafras® will not use or disclose any information about you without your consent. We will not pass on any information about you to any other organisation at any time unless:

- Required by law;
- We believe it necessary to provide you with a service you have requested
- To implement our terms of use
- To protect the rights or property of Cream at Sassafras®
- To lesson a serious threat to a person's health or safety.

At Cream at Sassafras®, we believe there is an obligation on both parties handling private information and so we encourage and rely on you to use care in supplying your private information and to contact us immediately if your information, your circumstances or the purpose for which you originally provided any information to us and gave us any contents, changes in any way. We accept no responsibility where you do not communicate with us.

We welcome your contact at any time to sales@creamatsassafras.com.au

LEENAH KHOR
Proprietor – November 2009

gourmet pantry essentials & food to go